

Review from TripAdvisor, which can be found from the link below.

https://www.tripadvisor.com.au/Hotel_Review-g255060-d591639-Reviews-or5-Sydney_Harbour_Bed_and_Breakfast-Sydney_New_South_Wales.html

There are some reviews in regards to Opera House view rooms at Sydney Harbour Bed and breakfast. We have highlighted to prove the fact that travelers do love the views.

179

Reviewed 4 July 2017

Quaint and interesting

We stayed at this lovely place just one night after a few uptown in a hotel. We wished we had stayed here the whole time. I really enjoyed the history of the area and the interesting home - much better than a clinical hotel.

Our room had a view of the Opera House and a nice big bathroom. It was cosy and warm and the bed was comfy.

The breakfast was basic but generous. If you want to try something else during your stay head to the Fine Food Store nearby - delicious.

If we are in Sydney again I'd definitely stay here and will recommend

Show less

Room Tip: Philip Room has a Opera House view and looks over a nice courtyard.

- Stayed: July 2017, travelled as a couple
 - Location
 - Rooms
 - Service
- Ask FreeJen about Sydney Harbour Bed and Breakfast
Respond
Thank FreeJen

Julie Anna A
Mermaid Waters, Australia

21

Reviewed 11 June 2017

A GENUINE HERITAGE EXPERIENCE AT THE ROCKS

This locally owned and operated heritage B&B had a warm and welcoming atmosphere and the staff were genuinely friendly and helpful. The ensuited Phillip Room on the second floor was warm and quiet with a view that overlooked the heritage Rocks buildings and the Opera House aglow with the Vivid lights I appreciated the freshly cooked hot breakfast. For a B & B (not a hotel) facilities included - air conditioning, separate bedroom and bathroom portable heaters, bathroom toiletries, hairdryer, safe, ironing board and iron, TV, fridge with mini bar, coffee and tea facilities, free Wi Fi. It was pleasant to meet and chat with other guests in the cosy lounge and dining room. Great location The Rocks, walking distance to Circular Quay, restaurants, train and ferry stations. Many bars and restaurants offer 'Happy Hours' for reduced drink prices.

Show less

Room Tip: 2nd floor Phillip room has large private ensuite, view Opera House, quiet. Some rooms are share ba...

- Stayed: June 2017, travelled as a couple
- Sleep Quality
- Cleanliness
- Service

Stat12
Newcastle, Australia

11

Reviewed 29 May 2017 via mobile

Good stay.

A lovely restored heritage building in the rocks. Central to the Rocks and Barangaroo. Our room was smallish but this was expected. Neat, clean and tidy. The shared bathroom was modern and had a view of the Opera House! Breakfast was good and filling. The hosts helpful and nice.

Doreen B
Royton, United Kingdom

122

Reviewed 25 May 2017 via mobile

Great place

We only had a one night stay in Sydney and booked this hotel because of the location.....so glad we did. Location was great and as advertised from our room (Phillip) we could see the Opera House. The room was nice and clean and the bed was very comfy the bathroom was large and very clean. A warm welcome from the owners on arrival and a nice breakfast with friendly service in the morning made our stay a very pleasant one also you are able to leave your luggage after checkout leaving you able to explore the city some more and just pop back when your ready to collect your bags. The hotel is up steps so may not be ideal for some people but if this doesn't affect you then definitely give this hotel a go we are glad we did. While in Sydney get the ferry and go over to Manleybeautiful place with grest beaches and good shopping....definitely recommended .

Show less

Stayed: May 2017, travelled as a couple

See all 4 reviews by Doreen B for Sydney

Ask Doreen B about Sydney Harbour Bed and Breakfast

Brisbane, Australia

11

Reviewed 8 May 2017

Friendly staff, great breakfast, fantastic location!

I stayed in the Deluxe Cook room on the top floor with a bathroom in the room. The room was nice with a tiny window overlooking the Sydney Opera House. I only stayed for one night, but the location was perfect for visiting the Harbour Bridge, Opera House and catching a bus from Circular Quay to Bondi Beach. Breakfast was excellent and filling. I was able to leave my bag there during the day on Friday while I visited around the city. It is a bed and breakfast in a historical building so it is not a luxury hotel, but was perfectly fine, clean and comfortable. I would stay there again.