My family (mom, Dad & brother) have been coming out to live for over a decade enjoying the open spaces, the small community pubs & boutiques.

My dad is from grow up on a dairy farm in Tamworth which we visit after but to come to live it is advice with less mines for the Central Coast to act to reduce & I can only worry that it will be where the whole way with only small open spaces & my children will never see the open spaces & the clear & clean skies & if we are not in a city we are in mining towns, these mines are not just damaging the way place &
