My submission is as follows:

As a local myself, I can completely confirm I am fully on board with with Trinity Point State Significant Development. As a central point between Sydney and newcastle, it is essential for Lake macquarie to continue growing, expanding and welcoming tourists. The new development will promote a healthy relationship between locals and, the project will create many leisure opportunities and give visitors a reason to explore Lake Macquarie. Not only that, the project will benefit all residents housing value.
