

I support this project because the State needs all the generation of electricity it can possible get. The landholders on which the towers are going be built are all looking forward to the project to begin