

It is clear that Australia needs to transition to renewable energy to slow the effect of climate change. We are lucky to have access to such quantities of wind & solar resources. It's a win/win - more jobs for the community & help NSW achieve our emissions targets. As a young person with children, I cannot think of a better way to improve their lives & the lives of their children.

A stylized handwritten signature, possibly reading 'IAR', written in black ink.