

i would like to comment on the development of woolworths at vincentia. how many amendments does there have to be before this project goes ahead, maybe when the supermarket is as small as the coles here we will see it then between the two stores there maybe enough stock for the community. stop mucking around and build it.