

Heritage Management

Pacific National is committed to the protection and preservation of heritage items and sites which it owns, occupies or controls, throughout Australia.

This approach involves:

- Listing heritage items under the ownership or control of Pacific National;
- Maintaining a register of heritage items;
- Training Pacific National's employees in the appropriate treatment of heritage items; and
- Reviewing heritage legislation to ensure continuing compliance.

Would you like to know more about Pacific National's Heritage Management Standard?

Standard | Heritage Management Standard

Refer to:

- The Employee User Guide for a simple and quick reference to Heritage Management; and
- The Supervisors' and Managers' Guide for a concise statement of Supervisors' and Managers' key responsibilities concerning Heritage Management.