3. Complying development

The information below outlines whether complying development is permitted on the land as per the provisions of clauses 1.17A (1) (c) to (e), (2), (3) and (4), 1.18(1) (c3) and 1.19 SEPP of the (Exempt and Complying Development Codes) 2008 only. The table does not specify whether any code applies to the land; applicants should read the full extent of the code with their building certifier, solicitor, or other professional to determine whether any code applies to the land.

The first column identifies the code(s). The second column describes the extent of the land in which exempt and complying development is permitted, as per the clauses above, for the code(s) given to the immediate left. The third column indicates the reason as to why exempt and complying development is prohibited on some or all of the land, and will be blank if such development is permitted on all of the land.

Code	Extent of the land for which development is permitted:	The reason(s) as to why development is prohibited:
Housing Code, Rural Housing Code, Greenfield Housing Code and Low Rise Medium Density Housing Code	All
Commercial and Industrial (New Buildings and Additions) Code	All
General Development Code, Container Recycling Facilities Code, Fire Safety Code, Housing Alterations Code, Commercial and Industrial Alterations Code, Subdivisions Code, and Demolition Code	All

Note: Despite information in the table above, Complying development codes do not apply and certain Exempt Codes do not apply or are modified in areas subject to land-use zoning under the SEPP (Western Sydney Aerotropolis) 2020.

Note: If council does not have sufficient information to ascertain the extent to which complying development may or may not be carried out on the land, a statement below will describe that a restriction applies to the land, but it may not apply to all of the land, and that council does not have sufficient information to ascertain the extent to which complying development may or may not be carried out on the land.

Nil
