
Hi David, Andrew,

Apologies for the delay in response, it appears we've missed the submission link on portal, I can't seem to locate it, but for the record, LAHC's response to the submissions is as follows:

The NSW Land and Housing Corporation (LAHC) is supportive of the Responses to Submissions lodged with respect to the State Significant Development application of the Eden St, Arncliffe Mixed Use Redevelopment (SSD-11429726).

The project will revitalise LAHC's aging social housing estate at Arncliffe and deliver more and better social housing which is sustainable, less expensive to maintain and meet the needs of NSW's social housing tenants now and into the future.
