Comment by NSW Office of Water
The NSW Office of Water advises:

- (i) from the information provided in the Modification Report, it would appear the proposed modifications are not likely to have any significant impact in relation to groundwater and the Office of Water has no issues with the proposed modifications.
- (ii) as previously advised, if groundwater is likely to be intercepted as part of the project and dewatering is required, the Office of Water will need to be consulted in regard to its groundwater assessment and licensing requirements.
