Dear Ms McNally,

SSD 6653 – Sydney Opera House Visitor & Interpretation Centre Indicative location for the Welcome Point

With regards to the abovementioned submission on 27 February 2015, Sydney Opera House wishes to confirm that the location of the Welcome Point signage blade on the forecourt, as indicated in the drawing package, is an indicative position only.

The final positioning of this signage blade will be subject to an on-site prototyping exercise to confirm the position and orientation to minimise impact on sightlines and crowd flow in this area. The final position of the signage blade will remain in the general vicinity of the location indicated on plans.

Sydney Opera House will work with the Heritage Architect and internal advisory bodies (the Sydney Opera House Eminent Architects Panel and Conservation Council) to determine the final position and orientation.

Please contact Sumi Thambyrajah (02 9250 7203 or sthambyajah@sydneyoperahouse) with any questions regarding this matter.

Yours sincerely,

Greg McTaggart
Director, Building Development & Maintenance
