NSW Bush Carers, Liverpool NSW, made the following submission on the project:

Narrabri Gas Project

Objects to this project

A fragile environment such as we have in Australia must be treated with all the greatest care possible.

Mining for coal seam gas is an unknown danger to an ecosystem, but certainly a finite resource which will end one day and leave a barren wasteland.

The value of the Pilliga State Forest to Australians and Tourism will continue for ever if it is preserved.

Please do that!
