Content:

The proposed building would conflict in character with the closely adjacent Campbell's Stores, and would obscure both the view of one of that building's aspects and that of the harbour and the Opera House. It would constitute yet another devaluing of Sydney's scant remaining architectural heritage. The milieu of The Rocks attracts local and foreign visitors by its attractive reminders of our history: please don't let an unsympathetic development such as that proposed further damage what has, against the odds, survived so far.
