

Outdoor learning in tower

Throughout the tower outdoor learning and play space are dispersed in the perimeter breeze-way areas. Each has the opportunity to have it own character and have a unique play environment for the students.

Section showing location of outdoor learning and play areas on each homebase level of building

Images showing examples of programming of outdoor learning and play spaces within building

