

Appendix D – Community Consultation Table SSD-93222706 – Waterloo South

Category	How this group was consulted	Key topics of interest	Feedback	EIS / Appendix Reference to where it has been addressed
General community (tenants, surrounding residents, businesses and visitors to Waterloo South)	Letterbox notifications, postcards and posters; project website and social media; newsletters; display materials; drop-in space; pop-ups; community information and feedback sessions; surveys; webinars; CALD sessions; targeted meetings and interviews.	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Built form and layout; walkability and safety; housing mix and affordability; open space; community facilities; privacy and amenity; traffic and parking; construction impacts; cultural identity and inclusion. 	Broad support was provided for renewal outcomes including improved housing quality, safer and more walkable streets, increased open space and integrated community facilities. Concerns were raised regarding overshadowing, privacy, density, traffic, construction disruption and relocation certainty.	EIS Sections 9.2-9.6, 9.14, 9.19 ; Appendices F, J, P, BB, CC, EE, FF, JJ
Immediate neighbours to Waterloo South	Letterbox distribution; targeted online neighbour session; meetings and briefings; surveys; project website; drop-ins and pop-ups; contact via phone and email.	Local amenity impacts including: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> building height and scale, privacy, overshadowing, wind, noise, traffic, construction management and property interface. 	Some acknowledgement of improved outcomes compared with previous planning controls. Ongoing concerns regarding density, overshadowing, privacy, wind and construction impacts, and requests for clear technical information and mitigation.	EIS Sections 9.3-9.5, 9.14-9.17 ; Appendices P, BB, CC, T, AA, DD
Local residents, landowners and businesses in the surrounding Waterloo / Redfern area	Community sessions; pop-ups in public locations; surveys; website information; stakeholder emails; newsletters; webinars and interviews.	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Integration with surrounding neighbourhood; safety and connectivity; access to open space and services; housing diversity and affordability; traffic and parking. 	General support for neighbourhood renewal and improved public domain and services. Requests for careful management of traffic, parking, safety and	EIS Sections 9.6, 9.11, 9.14, 9.19 ; Appendices J,K, CC, EE

Category	How this group was consulted	Key topics of interest	Feedback	EIS / Appendix Reference to where it has been addressed
			construction impacts, and equitable access to facilities and open space.
Community groups, human service providers and local organisations	Facilitated workshops; service-provider information sessions; interviews; meetings; surveys; ongoing liaison	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Social infrastructure; • health and wellbeing services; • continuity of care during relocation and construction; • inclusive and flexible community facilities; • support for vulnerable residents. 	Strong emphasis was placed on the provision of accessible, welcoming and adaptable community facilities integrated with open space and movement networks, and the importance of maintaining services and supporting mental health and social connection.	EIS Sections 9.11, 9.19 and 9.20 ; Appendix EE and HH .
Aboriginal stakeholders and organisations	Designing with Country sessions; yarning-based discussions; meetings with Traditional Owners, Aboriginal tenants, ACCOs and community representatives; ongoing culturally appropriate engagement.	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Connection to Country; • cultural identity and visibility; • culturally appropriate gathering spaces; • housing outcomes; safety, • wellbeing and community continuity. 	Strong support for embedding Country-led design, culturally responsive open space and community infrastructure, and maintaining cultural connections through relocation and renewal.	EIS Sections 9.1, 9.9–9.10, 9.19 ; Appendices I, V–Y, EE
Government agencies and statutory authorities	Pre-lodgement meetings, briefings, technical consultation and coordination with local and State agencies and service providers.	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Strategic planning alignment; • infrastructure and transport integration; • design excellence; utilities and services; • staging and delivery; • technical compliance. 	Agencies supported continued refinement of the Proposal and confirmed information requirements for assessment and future detailed applications, with technical matters to be addressed through further studies and approvals.	EIS Sections 4.0, 9.1, 9.2, 9.11–9.18 ; Appendices F, U, Z AA, CC