Subject: RE: Airservices response: NSW-CO-044 - Mount Piper to Wallerawang Transmission

OFFICIAL

Airspace Development Protection has no comments at this stage regarding the proposed Transmission Line.

Please be advised that proposals involving transmission lines may necessitate an Aviation Impact Assessment (AIA). If not already completed, it is recommended that applicants engage an aviation consultant to submit their application along with an AIA to Airservices.

Should you have any further queries, please do not hesitate to contact our team.
