international views and from Facebook. We have collaborated on well-attended book and film launches and historic place improvement. Our members live across the Shire, Canberra and Interstate. Volunteers open Pye Cottage Museum and the Old Gaol Cells to visitors, tour groups and our local school students. We work with other community groups to promote the town and district in a positive manner as to showcase what a wonderful part of the world we are lucky enough to call home.

Community benefits

Provide details about the initiative you are seeking funding for and how it will either: *

- ☒ Community education and skills development
- ☐ Supporting the transition to clean energy
- ☒ Community safety, health, and wellbeing
- ☐ Contributing to a sustainable future

Briefly describe how your initiative will improve/support the chosen areas listed (i.e. tree planting, new chairs, solar panel installation, food supplies etc). *

1. Making a searchable database of all our records, photos etc will work twofold. Learning how to use the database will be educational and teach people new skills. And it will also bring together all those who want to search their family history and town.

2. There is a joy to history that many of our members and the lay family tree searcher find in exploring their past which leads to wellbeing. More and more people are wondering we they come from and looking for ways to search it.

3. Having the records etc digitised will protect the fragile papers we have, but at the same time enabling those to see them far into the future when such papers will succumb to their environmental
