Hi Ellen,

All additional information submitted has been referred. It is unlikely that Council would renotify the application, however, I will discuss with my coordinator. I haven't as yet received comments from Council's Development Engineer, however, the timeframe you indicate sounds reasonable should all sections be ok.

Thanks Mark

Just so I can get a handle on possible timing, I'm guessing the next stage will be for this information to be referred to the various sections of Council.

Do you envisage you will renotify the additional information?

If not (and assuming the submitted information is satisfactory from Council's perspective) and comments are received back from the other sections by the end of next week (I live in hope!), would you estimate another 2 weeks for issue of determination, so say week commencing 18 April 2016.
