

Please

I am not a person to who writes letters often. But this is a very disturbing matter. The risk involved in this project threatens the health of the drinking water of the Moruya people and the the people on the Deua River. How can it even be proposed?

Yours sincerely

Mark Moss