

I fully support the modification as a resident of the local area, I believe the mine and power station boost the local economy. The power station needs coal and the mine is situated perfectly to continue supply.