UNOFFICIAL

Hi Jack

I can confirm that the Aeronautical Assessment and Plume Rise Assessment documents on your website dated 7 April 2021 are consistent with the documentation on which we based our advice.

We have no additional advice to provide at this time and will be pleased to provide additional advice once the proponent has made a decision on the gas turbine and finalised the design of the plant .

Regards

Dilip

Hi Dilip,

The Hunter Power Project is now on public exhibition. For our records can you please confirm the Aeronautical Assessment and Plume Rise Assessment available on the major projects website (both dated 7 April 2021) are consistent with the versions you reviewed and you have no additional advice to that provided in your letter to the Department dated 27 April 2021.

Thanks again for your review of this project.

Kind regards,

Jack
