My reason for supporting this development is that we have to get our energy from somewhere to support the growth of Australia. If we don't have renewable energy the country will grind to a standstill. This development will create jobs while being constructed as well as permanent jobs after it is completed. It will also add to construction of roads which will mean better access for farmers and locals.

I am not directly involved in this project. But if all development and construction work is stopped because of protests, where will this country be?

Just think where would we be now if the Snowy Mountain Scheme had been stopped because people objected.

The development at Rye Ash will bring money to the district which will benefit the whole district.

Yours sincerely
