Bengalla has been a stable place of employment for [redacted] now for [redacted]. We relocated from [redacted] to work in the industry and really love working at Bengalla where we plan to stay until retirement. It is very concerning for us to think that the Mt. Pleasant modification, if approved, may cause Bengalla to curtail its operation causing ourselves and 600 Bengalla employees to lose their jobs. Not only does this put these 600 employees and their families in a terrible position but the flow on effect to this would be the detrimental impact on the local community. Bengalla is a very well regarded member of the Muswellbrook community, supporting numerous organizations and events but the money employees as well spend on local businesses will be a big loss to the community. I feel the best outcome for Bengalla, Mt. Pleasant, Muswellbrook, NSW & Australia would be for both mines to continue for their full life!
