* I myself have a young family sold up everything for this position to move to the muswellbrook community to cement myself for a long term career in the Bengalla mine

* Im very Concerned that the mount pleasant modification if approved will allow the railway line for mount pleasant to remain in place and cause bengalla to curtail its operation causing myself and 600 bengalla employees to loose their jobs.

* In all seriousness the best result for the industry an the local Community is to have both mines operating its full potential and the local Community will benefit
