I have worked at Bengalla for [redacted] but have been in the mining industry for [redacted] a [redacted] as well as [redacted]. I have been welcomed at Bengalla by a friendly staff team of Management, OCE's and operators and the cleaners here at Bengalla, a terrific, professional place to work. I moved to the Upper Hunter [redacted] ago to [redacted] where I met a number of people who worked at Bengalla and other mines and businesses in the area. Many of the local businesses have said that without mines such as Bengalla the area would not be growing the way it is today. Bengalla has been a great sponsor of many organisations throughout the valley such as the Upper Hunter show, Apprentices and youth programs. If Mount Pleasant approval for their rail line to remain in place it will cause not only my loss of place of employment but 600 employees here to lose their jobs. Hopefully the 2 mines can work to help one another and achieve Both mines Full working life.
