

Major Projects Planning Portal Submission for Plasrefine
Plastics Recycling Plant EIS Development North of Moss
Vale NSW

Eastern Watercourse looking north with Australian Bio Resources Site on right looking towards downstream dams

Braddon Road corridor adjacent to Plasrefine site on southern side looking East towards Beaconsfield Road. The eastern watercourse crosses the access road in middle distance with Australian Bio Resources Facility behind and on the left of Braddon Road alignment

Lackey Road looking south towards Braddon Road Access to Australian BioResources and proposed access road to Plasrefine Development Site

Note: No line marking and pavement failures on Lackey Road.

Road width in foreground measured at 6.1m seal width on crest of hill

Lackey Road looking North from crest of hill on the road
Note No Line marking and pavement failures

Railway Corridor on right Australian Bioresources property on left.

Australian BioResources Access Road and Driveway
Entrance at Lackey Road.

Note: water in shoulder at end of Kerb. The road pavement width is 5.8m at photo location

OFFICIAL