I object to the proposal.

It seems ludicrous to me that rail line between Epping and Chatswood will be altered again to accommodate single deck trains only. This will not only inconvenience my family and I, but the amount of additional tax payers money that will need to be spent on this alteration when the line has only recently been opened, after another substantial cost. It makes the initial project of the Epping to Chatswood Rail Link seem worthless and a waste of money if it was going to be changed so soon.

Sincerely,

Anthea Bennett-Brown
