REF: Hume Coal Project EIS SSD 15_7172.

This submission is written in opposition to the above project.

In addition, I declare that no political donations have been made by myself – ever.

My objections are based on the following

In their EIS Appendix Q Economic Impact Assessment Report Page 50 Hume Coal has chosen to ignore the Historical significance of Berrima Village where I also happen to live.

- Berrima is rated #5 in Favourite Historic Towns – Travel Life
- Berrima Courthouse is of Historic significance – Destination NSW

This Motel is located in the Centre of Berrima Village. Like our neighbours, in geographical terms, we are to the North East of the proposed Hume Coal Site and 665 metres above sea level where high winds prevail during winter months. The average wind speed is +10mph from the South West. Logically, noise, dust, pollution put Berrima Village in a direct down-wind line.

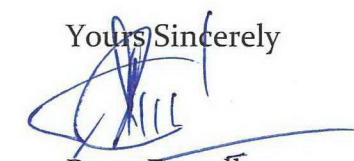

We are very familiar with these type of conditions as Berrima (Boral) Cement Works, located south of Berrima where Cement dust and noise from their trains is common.

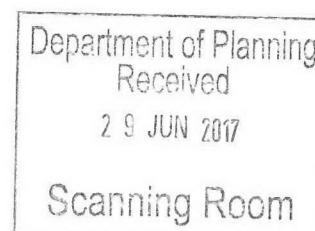

During the Calendar year 2016, Guests occupied 6,620 room nights at this Motel and every one would have visited a Coffee Shop or Restaurant contributing significantly to the local economy.

The enclosed Guest Feed-back forms are further evidence of the peace, quiet and tranquillity that our Guests have taken time to note.

There is no doubt that air/noise pollution generated by the Hume Coal Project would significantly impact on the image we enjoy and therefore the viability of this business

Yours Sincerely

General Comments... Beautiful, lovely place, lovely customer service, electric blankets great

Dishliquid would be great!

Soap dispenser in bathroom near sink is cracked & leaking!

single bed closest to TV may be on it way out comes on off)

Thank you for your time – please leave in room

A white paint over all tiles in bathroom would make it flow with the room – this is cosmetic but I know you spoke to me about helping with feedback. we loved staying here!!

Nice location;
convenient; quiet. For me it's not necessary to have clean bath towel everyday. Could ask guests to take towel on the bathroom floor if they want to.
