To whom it may concern,

I was recently informed by a number of clients who sub-contract to the Daracon Martins Creek quarry and was upset to hear that there was an objection to scale back on their proposed expansion.

These employees, sub-contractors and local businesses will all suffer due to a loss of income and this will have a detrimental impact on the local economy, not to mention their families.

Our business strongly supports the quarry expansion and trust this serves as additional reasoning to the proposal.
