

Illustration of the location of residence and the impact.

The proposed development will completely block any views from my residence and is grossly inconsistent with planning within the Darling Harbour precinct to date. It would be a monstrosity.