Hi Michelle,

Gosh when I look at that I got to wonder where my head was at, I got myself so confused, clearly I partially started to modify the file to remove the red/strikeouts. Really sorry.

I've fixed up the red/strike out version back to be what it should with all original wording (I think) and added "allotment" to both. Lets try that again.

Regards,

Caroline Griffiths

Hi Caroline,

We're almost there but there are a couple more items which need to be updated:

- Some changes don't include the original text in strikethrough (ie the Ecological offset commitments and service provide name changes). This a standard requirement to allow for easy comparison
- The word "allotment" is missing from the 'timing' section of the Urban Design commandment – it should read "...at the time of sale of each allotment"

Kind regards,

Michelle Niles
