

Design Report
27 June 2008 S10955

10.3 Warehouse Facade
The steel columns and cross bracing is located on the exterior of the façade to provide the 100 metre long building with an expressed articulation. The building has a 2m high concrete plinth with horizontally fixed profiled metal sheeting above. A continuous strip window separates the concrete plinth from the metal cladding and provides natural light to the warehouse.

Pictured Part wall section/ elevation

