I strong object to this development due to the following:

- 1/ Completely overscaled for heritage Paddington
- 2/ Overlooking into my property from addition level along Stephen Street at Cooper Street corner
- 3/ Addition does not relate to existing heitage of the lower side of Cooper Street

Subject: Re: Scottish Hospital Redevelopment- Adjacent small cottage at 4 Cooper Street, Paddington

Shivesh,

I would like to point out that the in the Scottish Hospital's Environmental Assessment Report tabled my house at 4 Cooper Street Paddington, which is adjacent to the Cooper/Stephen Street Corner of the redevelopment, is not indicated on any of the assessment diagrams. It is like my house does not exist. Well I do exist & it is not good for their assessment because my house is a small single storey to street frontage 1880s heritage cottage which is adjacent to a proposed massive over scaled hospital wing along Stephen Street with an addition storey overlooking my backyard.

I don't object to a redevelopment of the Scottish Hospital but I do object to an overscaled redeveloped that is trying to deceive NSW Planning with a report that does not show all of the facts & just leaves off small single storey dwellings from their report because clearly it does not work adjacent to an over scaled hospital wings.

Regards,
Darren Miller
Owner 4 Cooper Street, Paddington
