

The MHICU shall be supplied from the existing main switchboard in the Palliative Care Building at the Prince of Wales Hospital. The existing switchboard is supplied from an existing substation on site. An existing 8 story building has been demolished freeing up approximately 400A 3 phase, which will be sufficient to serve the new MHICU.