

General Waste	Clinical Waste	Sharps	Anatomical Waste	Chemical	Pharmaceutical	Cytotoxic Waste	Radioactive Waste	Paper & Cardboard	Food Waste	Commingle Recyclable Plastic & Aluminium / Glass / Tin Cans Magazines / Newspapers Paper Hand Towels	Industrial Metal	Furniture & Equipment
dark green / grey bins & clear / opaque bags	yellow bin & bags	yellow sharps bin	burgundy bins			purple bins bags	red signs / bins	blue bins	dark green grey bags / orange bags	green bins with yellow lids
IV giving sets (other than blood or cytotoxics) cut bag, drain, leave line attached Giving set line with spike remove spike, place in sharp bin, place line in general waste if no blood Incontinence pads (bluey) disposable nappies sanitary waste NOT heavily soiled Urine bags drained do NOT cut Patient care items NOT blood stained, eg wound dressings, swabs, gloves, plastic aprons, masks, disposable gowns Syringes without needles NOT blood stained	Wound and suction drainage bags / systems dispose of intact, do not cut or drain Blood bags / blood giving set return to clinical waste Incontinence pads (bluey) disposable nappies sanitary waste ONLY if heavily soiled & it may leak fluid Urine bags, only if undrainable Patient care items blood stained eg wound dressings, swabs, gloves, plastic aprons, masks, disposable gowns Syringes without needles blood stained	Needles, scalpel blades & disposable scalpels, trocars, broken ampoules	Body parts, placentas, lab specimens Titanium metal hip and knee replacements, staple guns & other large metal objects	Used chemicals, unknown substances Refer to site Environmental Services Manager to arrange contractor to remove	Loose pills & unused medicines return to Pharmacy	Drugs & material associated with preparation and use	Store in lead lined containers as required Please contact Environmental Services manager to arrange service	Confidential paper - shred for recycling with paper Cardboard flatten boxes, place in bins or boxes Office paper	All food & plate scraps from kitchen, cafeteria & kiosks includes all part full single serve portions - jam, butter, juice, milk etc. Paper items such as serviettes, menus OK. (Converted to electricity & fertiliser) Aluminium cans Plastic No. 1 Clear plastic bottles (soft drink / milk bottles) Plastic No. 2 Cloudy plastic bottles (milk / Used paper hand towel (including those from staff caring for patients with communicable diseases or MRO eg MRSA) Newspapers, magazine (staples, clips OK) Milk cartons - rinsed Glass containers all colours Tin cans rinse out after use	Equipment dismantle Instruments Place in solid receptacle	Junk / broken furniture & equipment - collected for transport to the tip Contact the Site Environmental Services Manager for service details Obsolete, surplus or out of date furniture & equipment in working order - collected for use overseas
Hazardous Substances (including Chemicals) Regular and one off collections Contact the Site Environmental Services Manager for service details TONER & PRINTER CARTRIDGES Please contact Site Environmental Department for service details												