

An aerial photograph of a city block, likely in a downtown area. The image shows a dense arrangement of buildings, mostly with flat roofs, and a network of streets. A large, irregularly shaped green rectangular area is highlighted in the center-right of the image, labeled "MAIN PARK" in green capital letters. To the left of this area, a red line traces a path through the urban landscape, possibly indicating a proposed route or boundary. The overall scene is a high-contrast, black-and-white aerial view with color highlights for the park and the red line.

An aerial photograph of an urban area with a complex street grid and numerous buildings. A specific rectangular area in the center is highlighted with a green border and labeled 'MAIN PARK' in green capital letters. The surrounding area is filled with various building footprints, some with flat roofs and others with more complex structures. The overall scene depicts a dense urban environment.

An aerial photograph of a dense urban area in San Francisco, specifically the Main Park area. The image shows a complex arrangement of buildings, streets, and green spaces. A large, irregularly shaped area in the center-right is highlighted in green and labeled "MAIN PARK". To the left of this area, there is a small, rectangular building with a distinctive roof structure. A red line is drawn across the top left of the image, indicating a boundary or a specific area of interest. The overall scene is a detailed view of the city's layout, showing the relationship between built structures and open space.
