

An aerial photograph of a city block in San Francisco, showing a dense arrangement of buildings and streets. A central rectangular area is highlighted in green and yellow, labeled 'MAIN PARK'. The surrounding area is filled with various building footprints and shadows, indicating a high-density urban environment. The highlighted area is located in the center of the block, bounded by streets on all sides. The green area is the main part of the park, and the yellow area is a smaller section adjacent to it. The label 'MAIN PARK' is written in green capital letters within the green area.

An aerial photograph of a city block in San Francisco, centered on the Main Park area. The Main Park site is highlighted in green and labeled 'MAIN PARK' in green text. A yellow and orange line runs along the eastern boundary of the park, indicating a proposed improvement or boundary. The surrounding area is filled with various buildings, streets, and urban infrastructure, including a large building complex to the north and a street intersection to the east.

This aerial photograph shows the study area, a rectangular plot of land in the center of the city, highlighted in green. The surrounding urban environment is visible, including various buildings, streets, and infrastructure. The study area is located near the intersection of several major roads, and its proximity to the city center is evident from the dense urban fabric.
