The expansion of these areas (if required) will be decided based upon the archaeological material being recovered (ie archaeological features such as hearths, knapping floors, high artefact densities etc) and discussions with RAP's in the field. •There is one test excavation unit outside of the Medowie PAD 01 area which contained more than 10 artefacts (Medowie PAD 02 – 14 artefacts total). Dear Nicole

Re: Request - Search for Registered Aboriginal Owners

I refer to your email dated 9 March 2018 regarding an Aboriginal Cultural Heritage Assessment of the proposed Catherine McAuley Catholic College located at 507 Medowie Road, Medowie NSW.

I have searched the Register of Aboriginal Owners and the project area described does not have Registered Aboriginal Owners pursuant to Division 3 of the Aboriginal Land Rights Act 1983.

The Aboriginal owners for this managed park are represented by a Board of Management (BoM) and can be contacted through Mr Graeme Russell NSW National Parks and Wildlife Service on (02 4984 8200). Graeme will be able to confirm whether the BoM is interested in the project or whether it is beyond their cultural area.

I suggest that you contact the Worimi Local Aboriginal Land Council on 02 4965 1500. They may be able to assist you in identifying other Aboriginal stakeholders for this project.

Yours sincerely

Dear Taryn

Stage 1 Aboriginal Community Consultation - Aboriginal Cultural Heritage Assessment for Catherine McAuley Catholic College, Medowie, NSW

In response to your request under Section 4.1.2(a) of the Aboriginal cultural heritage consultation requirements for proponents (DECCW 2010), please find attached a list of known Aboriginal parties that have self-nominated for the Port Stephens Council Local Government Area (LGA). Please note the following information with respect to Aboriginal consultation for your project.

Aboriginal stakeholder lists maintained by OEH are comprised of self-nominated individuals and organisations

Please note that the attached list is comprised only of self-nominated individuals and Aboriginal organisations who could have an interest in your project. The list is not vetted by OEH. As the list comprises only of self-nominated individuals and Aboriginal organisations, it is not necessarily an exhaustive list of all Aboriginal parties who may hold an interest in the project. Further consultation in accordance with step 4.1.2 of the Aboriginal cultural heritage consultation requirements for proponents (DECCW 2010) is required to identify Aboriginal people who may hold either cultural or historical knowledge relevant to determining the significance of Aboriginal objects or places within your proposed project area.

Ensure you document the consultation process

Please ensure all consultation undertaken in accordance with the Aboriginal cultural heritage consultation requirements for proponents (DECCW 2010) is documented within an Aboriginal Cultural Heritage Assessment Report (ACHAR). This must include copies of all correspondence sent to or received from all Registered Aboriginal Parties (RAPs) throughout the entire consultation process. Omission of these records in the final ACHAR may cause delays in the assessment of an Aboriginal Heritage Impact Permit (AHIP) application or a major project Aboriginal cultural heritage assessment, and could require parts of the consultation process to be repeated if the evidence provided to OEH does not demonstrate that the consultation process has been conducted in accordance with our consultation requirements.

Demonstrate that reasonable consultation attempts have been made

Please ensure you provide evidence to demonstrate that reasonable attempts have been made to contact the relevant parties identified through step 4.1.2 of the Aboriginal cultural heritage consultation requirements for proponents (DECCW 2010). If this evidence is not provided, OEH may deem that the consultation process has not complied with the consultation requirements. Similarly, the proponent is required to record all feedback received from RAPs, along with the proponent's response to the feedback. Where concerns or contentious issues are raised by RAPs during the consultation process, OEH expects that reasonable attempts are made to address and resolve these matters, however OEH acknowledges that in some cases, this may not be achievable. In the case where conflict cannot be resolved, it is the responsibility of the proponent to record these differences and provide the necessary information in their ACHAR with their AHIP application or major project ACHAR.

Consultation should not be confused with employment

As outlined in Section 3.4 of the Aboriginal cultural heritage consultation requirements for proponents (DECCW 2010), the consultation process involves getting the views of, and information from, Aboriginal people and reporting on these. It is not to be confused with other field assessment processes involved in preparing a proposal and an application. OEH does not have any role with respect to commercial engagement. Where RAPs are engaged commercially to provide field services as part of an assessment process, that is a matter for the proponent to manage as they see fit. However, if a proponent is proposing to undertake consultation processes or elicit cultural information from RAPs during the course of conducting a field survey, OEH considers this to form part of the consultation process, and expects that all RAPs would be afforded the opportunity to be involved in the process.

Native title search – NSW Freehold Parcels Within Port Stephens Council LGA

Your ref: 26830 - Our ref: SR3904

Dear Taryn Gooley,

Thank you for your search request received on 09 March 2018 in relation to the above area, please find your results attached.

Please note: Where the area identified to be searched is indistinct, generalised, or is for a freehold parcel, the results provided may relate to the Local Government Area (LGA) or Local Aboriginal Land Council (ALC).

Search Results

The results provided are based on the information you supplied and are derived from a search of the following Tribunal databases:

- Schedule of Native Title Determination Applications
- Register of Native Title Claims
- Native Title Determinations
- Register of Indigenous Land Use Agreements
- Notified Indigenous Land Use Agreements

For more information about the Tribunal's registers or to search the registers yourself and obtain copies of relevant register extracts, please visit our website.

Please note: There may be a delay between a native title determination application being lodged in the Federal Court and its transfer to the Tribunal. As a result, some native title determination applications recently filed with the Federal Court may not appear on the Tribunal's databases. The search results are based on analysis against external boundaries of applications only. Native title applications commonly contain exclusions clauses which remove areas from within the external boundary. To determine whether the areas described are in fact subject to claim, you need to refer to the "Area covered by claim" section of the relevant Register Extract or Schedule Extract and any maps attached.

Search results and the existence of native title

Please note that the enclosed information from the Register of Native Title Claims and/or the Schedule of Applications is not confirmation of the existence of native title in this area. This cannot be confirmed until the Federal Court makes a determination that native title does or does not exist in relation to the area. Such determinations are registered on the National Native Title Register.

Please find enclosed application for Murrooma Incorporated to register our interest to be a part of the community consultation process for this proposed project.

Anthony Anderson and Bec Young are representatives of Murrooma who both hold specific cultural knowledge and education relevant to determining the significance of Aboriginal objects and places in the Port Stephens/Worimi region. We are both Traditional Custodians of the Worimi area and are in a position to speak for country.

We have previously worked within this area and are aware of the Aboriginal Sites and where they are located; we have knowledge of how these sites are connected to our Traditional Storylines. We believe that in order to gain the specific information that will be required for this area, it must be sorted through Local Knowledge Holders and this is what we can offer in the consultation process.
