Hi Mitch,

Confirming that the BASIX certificate was updated to account for removal of the rainwater detention tank.

Apologies for delay.

Regards,

Hi Nathan,

Can you please assist in providing a statement confirming the below highlighted yellow item. The attached architectural plan is the revised location of OSD tank with removal of the rainwater tank. We already have your attached certificate to satisfy the first OSD Modification dot point.

Would be appreciated if we could close out by COB tomorrow.

Kind Regards,

Mitch Ryan
